Mark Hello?

Ben Hello, Mark. How are you?

Mark I'm fine. Listen, I'm sending you an e-mail at the moment.

Ben Great. What's up? Anything special?

Mark Well, my school's organising a clean-up day and I want everyone to learn about it.

Ben A clean-up day? Where? When?

Mark In the park on Thursday morning. We want to collect all the rubbish and make it beautiful again.

Ben OK, send me the e-mail with all the information.

Mark Sure, and I've got lots more to send to other people.

Ben Aren't your friends helping out?

Mark They are. Arthur has got the posters. He's going around the neighbourhood and he's putting them up.

Ben Good idea. Everyone will see them. What about Gary?

Mark Well, he's at the park.

Ben Is he collecting rubbish already?

Mark No, no. He's giving flyers to people.

Ben Oh, right.

Mark Everyone must know about this event. We need lots of help and of course lots of rubbish bags. So, Ted is at the supermarket now. He's buying bags for Thursday.

Ben I think you're all doing a great job! How can I help?

LISTENING TRANSCRIPT

This week we're visiting the largest country in the world. That's right, Russia! The capital of Russia is, of course, Moscow. Its population is about nine million and it's got the busiest underground in the world. Three billion people use it every year. The longest railway is in Russia. It travels from Moscow all the way to Vladivostok. That's 9310km! Another Russian city is beautiful Ekaterinburg in the central part of the country. Russia's highest mountain is Mount Elbrus in the south west, but that's not the coldest place in the world. Some of the coldest places are in Siberia in the north east of the country. Russia is truly an amazing country.

1.

Kevin: Hey, Billy! Why are you going outside in this weather? It's cold and it's still snowing.

Billy: Just a minute. Give me my camera, please... Thanks. Can you see the snowman? Some children made it. Click! There, isn't it a beautiful picture?

Kevin: You're right.

Billy: Tomorrow morning I'm going to make a snowman, too.

2.

Susan: So, doctor, am I going to be OK?

Doctor: Don't worry, Susan. Just be a bit careful. You mustn't eat any dairy products for the next few days.

Susan: So, I can't have yoghurt or milk?

Doctor: No, no.

Susan: What about pizza? Or should I avoid junk food, too?

Doctor: Well, you mustn't eat a lot of junk food, that's for sure. But at the moment, I don't want you to eat dairy products for a while. So, no pizza with cheese. If it's home-made, you can have other things on it.

3.

Fahad: So, how was it, Majed?

Majed: I'm not sure.

Fahad: What do you mean? You love roller coasters!

Majed: I know. I just think the roller coaster at Adventureland is better. It's more exciting and scarier. When I was on it, I screamed the whole time! This one here is for kids!

4.

Mr Price: OK, Cybil. We must choose a holiday soon. We are not going to find any tickets! Is it Spain, then?

Mrs Price: Yes, Spain's nice.

Mr Price: Great! The sleeping bags are OK, but we need a new tent.

Mrs Price: So, you want to go camping again.

Mr Price: Of course I do.

Mrs Price: Well, I'd like to stay at a hotel by the beach this summer.

Mr Price: Come on, Cybil. It's very expensive. Maybe next year.

Mrs Price: Oh, OK.
